Monday July 7th, 2008

Albert Dyck Memorial Park - Abbotsford, BC

Swim BC is hosting the upcoming BC Open Water Swimming Championships. There will be 1.5km, 3km and 5km races offered in age categories 12 & Under, 14 & Under, and Open. This competition is open to everyone. Complete information on the event can be found at <https://www.swimming.ca/meetlist.aspx> or contact Swim BC Program Director Mike Flegel at mikeflegel@swim.bc.ca

Albert Dyck Memorial Park is an abandoned gravel quarry which has been converted into a park and is administered by Abbotsford governments. The water quality is checked on a regular basis. The lake is a relatively small body of water, and is the home of the Fraser Valley Waterski Club. There is a bike path around the perimeter of the lake which will enable spectators and coaches to follow the athletes throughout the course.

Entry fees are $24.00 per competitor. The entry deadline is June 25th, 2008. Race organizers will have the discretion to accept late entries from 8:30-9:00am the day of competition at a fee of $35.00.
